

Change the following from future or present tense into past tense. The first 3 have the words you will need to change underlined for you.

Eg.

On the weekend you will have to do all of your chores or you won't get any pocket-money and your Dad will be cross.

On the weekend you had to do all your chores or you wouldn't have got any pocket money and your dad would have been cross.

1. My dog will run quickly through the fields until he catches as many mice as he can.
2. I am feeling nervous about going on stage, but once the concert is over I will breathe a sigh of relief.
3. The shark is bearing down on that school of fish.
4. I am attending the football match for the first half only as I need to be home by 9.
5. The dog is racing through after the pretend bunny because it thinks it is real.
6. We all know he shouldn't be in the computer room, but he's working in there anyway.
7. He will ride his bike to the chemist and buy flowers in addition to medicine.
8. She is tripping on the stairs, thus she is hurting herself and breaking her glasses.
9. I am waiting expectantly for my birthday as I know I enjoy myself.
10. When you close your eyes you will feel less frightened.