

Correct the following sentences by changing the verbs. Ensure they are all correct past tense. The first 3 sentences have the words you need to correct underlined.

1. Jonny sitted on the fence on Saturday as he feeled lonely.
2. Yesterday was the day we all fearing, because we have a hard test.
3. Once upon a time a large gruesome monster ravaging a town while people screaming and runned.
4. I throwed the ball with tremendous accuracy, but I only caught it one out of the 7 times that it comed my way.
5. The dog racing through the snow and rescuing his owner just in time.
6. On Friday he fishing off the edge of the peer, just before a huge wave crashing down and washing all his gear into the water.
7. He taked a huge breath before he blowed the candles and sended spit flying across the room.
8. Yesterday we writed for hours because we loving the topic and our gorgeous teacher.
9. I waiting expectantly for the weekend and then it raining the whole time so I standed at the window and feeled bored.
10. I rided my bike with the wind in my face as I thinked about how much it hurt that I had losing her.