

Looking at problems and solutions in narratives.

- What is each person feeling
- How will you show this with body language
- What is each person thinking
- What will happen next

Group plays

1. You're at the shopping centre with a friend. Your friend has dropped $20 and can't find it. You see it on the ground under a chair.
2. You and your friends try out for the school tennis team. You know there is only a spot for 2 of you and 5 of you are trying out. The teacher announces who is on the team at the end of the day.
3. You find a lost child at the park.
4. You're out on a boat with your family and your brother catches a massive snapper.
5. You are on a camping trip with the school and you have a surfing class. Your friend is the best in the class.
6. Your little sister fell in a creek when you were out bushwalking
7. You see the new student in your class standing alone outside at lunch time.
8. You're sitting on the couch watching TV with your siblings when you notice that your mum looks really tired and is tidying the house

Scenarios for individuals

1. Your character is the first person at the scene of a car accident
2. Your character gets lost during a bush walk
3. Your character is at the beach and hears on the radio that a tsunami is heading that way
4. Your character finds a live, baby bird that has fallen out of a tree
5. Your character gets stranded on an island after a boating accident
6. Your character gets chased by a bear
7. Your character wakes up to find he/she has swapped bodies with a family member
8. Your character falls into a giant hole in the ground and finds him/herself
.....
9. Your character accidentally gets locked in the school on the last day before holidays.